

The West at its best

Inside this section
Picnic goodies; outdoor movies; the newest water sports craze

A big splash

We hope the Annenberg Community Beach House in Santa Monica is a sign of things to come. After all, it's open to everyone, entry is free, and it's just as dazzling (built by William Randolph Hearst for his mistress, Marion Davies, in the '20s) as any club with a three-year waiting list. $10 to swim; beachhouse.smgov.net

RETRO FINISH

Check out the original 1920s tile in the pool